UNEXPECTEDLY.

Mr. John B. Woods Died at His Home Tuesday Noon.

Mr. John B. Woods died at his home on West Chestnut st., at noon, Tuesday, of heart disease. He was aged 49 years and had resided in Akron for 40 years, being the son of the late banker, John B. Woods.

The funeral will take place Thursday at 10 a.m., from the residence and the remains will be interred in Glendale cemetery. Mr. Woods had been ill for five days, but his death was unexpected and came as a great blow to his friends.

Besides a wife he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Emma L. Andrews and Mrs. John Hilbish, of Akron, and two brothers, Mr. Perry Woods, of Cleveland, and Dr. Austin Woods, of Loyal Oak.

Music at Mme. d'Erina's Recital.

Universalist Church.

Mme. d' Erina and Mr. Vontom will give another recital at the Universalist church, Wednesday evening, an entirely new program being rendered.

With swelling hearts and shining eyes, the people listened to the thrilling, soul stirring music of organ and voice at the recital given in the Universalist church, Monday evening, by the talented artist, Mmc. d' Erina and her assistant. Mr. G. R. Vontom. Mme. d' Erina excels as an organist, her playing being superior to her singing. though her voice is under complete control and is that of the trained ar-

Part two of the program, which was devoted to the music of Ireland, introducing the National ballads and plaintive airs of Erin's isle, was the more popular, the first part of the selections.

The organ Fantasic of Irish airs, a medley of plaintive airs and soul stir ring marches, fairly captured the audi. ence and vied in popularity with the concluding selection, "Home, Sweet cessors to Wade Photo Co., 207 E. Home," to which Mme, d' Erina, as Market st. she sang, played an accompaniment descriptive of a storm at sea, which was vivid and realistic in the extreme.

Mr. Vontom' sang by special request, the Scotish ballad, "Annie Laurie," won all hearts. Owing to the fact that | All fully warranted. We are making very low prices to the organ in the Universalist church at Lorain has been broken, the concert by these people will also be repeated KRATZ FURNITURE STORE at the local Universalist church, Thursday evening. Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Caeney & Co. Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
